

FACT SHEET

EQUIVALENCY OF QUALIFICATIONS

One of the functions of the Barbados Accreditation Council is to determine the equivalency of qualifications and advise on the recognition of foreign qualifications.

Steps used in determining equivalency of qualifications:

1. Receiving completed application forms for Recognition of Qualifications from applicants, along with requisite fee.
2. Consulting with applicants, where necessary.
3. Determining validity of documents provided.
4. Consulting with universities, colleges, accreditation agencies, professional bodies, embassies, etc. locally, regionally and internationally to gain required information.
5. Benchmarking against qualifications within the Barbadian educational system to determine equivalence.
6. Providing certification of equivalency to applicants.

FACT SHEET

EQUIVALENCY OF QUALIFICATIONS

One of the functions of the Barbados Accreditation Council is to determine the equivalency of qualifications and advise on the recognition of foreign qualifications.

Steps used in determining equivalency of qualifications:

1. Receiving completed application forms for Recognition of Qualifications from applicants, along with requisite fee.
2. Consulting with applicants, where necessary.
3. Determining validity of documents provided.
4. Consulting with universities, colleges, accreditation agencies, professional bodies, embassies, etc. locally, regionally and internationally to gain required information.
5. Benchmarking against qualifications within the Barbadian educational system to determine equivalence.
6. Providing certification of equivalency to applicants.

FACT SHEET

EQUIVALENCY OF QUALIFICATIONS

One of the functions of the Barbados Accreditation Council is to determine the equivalency of qualifications and advise on the recognition of foreign qualifications.

Steps used in determining equivalency of qualifications:

1. Receiving completed application forms for Recognition of Qualifications from applicants, along with requisite fee.
2. Consulting with applicants, where necessary.
3. Determining validity of documents provided.
4. Consulting with universities, colleges, accreditation agencies, professional bodies, embassies, etc. locally, regionally and internationally to gain required information.
5. Benchmarking against qualifications within the Barbadian educational system to determine equivalence.
6. Providing certification of equivalency to applicants.